A property owner may use this motion to correct, for any of the five preceding years: (1) clerical errors that affect a property owner's liability for a tax imposed in that tax year; (2) multiple appraisals of a property in that tax year; (3) inclusion of property that does not exist in the form or at the location described in the appraisal roll; or (4) an error of ownership. Errors of omission of tangible personal property in a rendition statement or property report may be corrected for the current tax year and either of the preceding two tax years if criteria in 25.25(c-1) is met. Tax Code Section 1.04(18) defines clerical error as an error: (A) that is or results from a mistake or failure in writing, copying, transcribing, entering or retrieving computer data, computing or calculating; or (B) that prevents an appraisal roll or a tax roll from accurately reflecting a finding or determination made by the chief appraiser, the appraisal review board or the assessor; however, clerical error does not include an error that is or results from a mistake in judgment or reasoning in the making of the finding or determination.
